ENROLLMENT EXCEEDS LAST YEAR'S TOTAL

LARGEST NUMBER HERE SINCE THE YEAR 1927.

898 Students Have Been Enrolled, Making Second Largest in the History of the College.

Enrollment for the fall quarter has exceeded all predictions, according to figures released by Registrar Shirley.

There are 898 students in the college and training school together, and 716 of these are in the college. Of this last number eleven are graduate students. This enrollment is considerably larger than last year's when 684 students entered the college and 250 registered in the training school.

In fact, this year's enrollment is the second largest in the history of the institution. In 1927 there were 915 students in the college and 184 in the training school. It is interesting to note that one of these peaks was reached at the peak of prosperity, and the other in the depths of the current depression. It is thought that the reason for this phenomenon is that in good times everybody had money to go to school and in the present hard times the unemployed are attending college if they can possibly raise the money rather than to waste a year.

The large registration was not unforeseen by the administration, but the facilities of the college are being strained to meet the emergency. The book store has had to order more books, and similar conditions were the order all over the school.

An unusual number of students are doing light housekeeping this year, a survey reveals. Despite the heavy registration the halls are not full, and many boarding houses report similar conditions. Students are resorting to novel expedients to eke out their meager funds, and an observer reports that some of them are even bringing boxes of canned foods to school.

Rotary Club Has High School Players at Luncheon Tuesday

The Canyon Rotary Club was entertained Tuesday by a one-act play by students from the Canyon high school. The play, "Household Hints," was produced under the direction of Doris Louder. Members of the cast were Dale Bowman, George Schmitz, Rosa Cash and Maxine Middleton. Miss Louder gave a reading at the end of the play. The program was in charge of the Student Loan Fund committee, with Irby Carruth, Canyon.

The executive committee voted to invite the Panhandle Rotary Club to come to Canyon at the earliest possible date for an inter-city meeting. The plan for a picnic with the Boy Scout troops was also proposed.

The birthday of Earl Robbins was recognized by the club.

Visitors present Tuesday were: N. L. Judd, J. J. Sanders, P. C. Bennett, Phil O. Purdum, all of Amarillo; C. M. Beachy of Wichita, Kansas; R. A. Reed of Kirksville, Mo.; Mrs. Irby Carruth, Canyon.

TWO-THIRDS OF CITY TAXES ARE PAID

Harvey Cash, city clerk, reports that $15,000 of the $23,000 on the city tax rolls was paid before the first of October.

The amount carried over this month was a little larger than usual, but Mr. Cash believes that a large percent of the $3,000 will be paid before the delinquent rolls are made up.

"Hill for President" Club Gets Many Signers Over State

Endorsements of Doctor Hill for the presidency of the Texas State Teachers Association are being reported from all parts of the state. Last week the teachers of Swisher county voted 100 per cent to attend the State Teachers Association meeting in Amarillo and to support Dr. Hill.

Letters are being received daily from widely separated points in the state, expressing satisfaction that Mr. Hill is a candidate and promising vigorous support to his campaign.

The Texas Outlook, the organ of the State Teachers Association will carry Dr. Hill's formal announcement in the November number. Signers of the announcement will be, Supt. C. Wedgeworth, Snyder, president of the "Hill for President Club;" Ima Kuykendall, primary supervisor, Ft. Worth public schools; A. L. Morgan, principal Dick Downing Junior High School, Beaumont; Minnie Ellis, county superintendent of schools Haskell county; Supt. H. A. Glass, Bonham; R. B. Cousins, President College of Arts and Industries, Kingsville; Corinne Nash, primary supervisor, Waco; B. F. Fronabarger, head of the English department of North Texas State Teachers College, Denton; and Supt. R. B. Fisher, Pampa.

Only ten signers are allowed on the announcement, but the names of hundreds of prominent school men could have been used if space had allowed.

City Bonds Bought by County—No Work on Mains for Awhile

Randall county was the highest bidder for the city of Canyon water bonds in the amount of $18,000.00, which were sold last Thursday. The bid of the county was $102.25 and accrued interest. This gives the city about $550 about par for the bonds.

The bid of the county is subject to the refusal of the state, but owing to the fact that no bid above par was made by outside firms, it is not likely that the state would take the bonds for a higher price. It will probably be several weeks before the bonds will be ready for delivery to the county. The bonds will be held for the sinking fund of Randall county.

Mayor Bellah states that local workmen have expressed interest in the water mains extension project. He points out the fact that it will take more than three-fourths of the bonds issue to buy the pipe, therefore, the amount left for labor will not be very large. Furthermore no work will be done by the city until all cotton picking and other farm labor is ended. There is a great demand for cotton pickers right now all over the Plains, as well as many farmers calling daily for men to handle the row crop.

G. G. FOSTER BUYS BUSINESS OF SMITH BROS. FIRM

He has always taken a high place in the Dallas Fair, and for the past four years has won first place at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo.

Mrs. Upchurch, son and daughter accompanied Mr. Upchurch to the Dallas Fair this year.

Palo Duro Post Named Officers for Coming Year Tues.

Palo Duro Post No. 97, American Legion, met Tuesday night for the last meeting of the Legion year.

After the regular business session the election of officers for 1932 was held. The following were selected:

A. L. Walsh, commander.
R. E. Harter, 1st vice commander
S. F. Black, 2nd vice commander
Hubert O. Price, adjutant.
Geo. A. Farlow, finance officer.
H. A. Brown, service officer.
J. Wes Kleinschmidt, liaison officer.

W. E. Lockhart, chaplain.
A. Hudson Prichard, A. L. Overton and R. A. Doak were elected to serve with the other officers on the executive board.

Palo Duro Post voted to help in every way possible to find employment for all ex-service men in Randall County, also to give all the aid possible to veterans seeking hospitalization.

Plans were also laid for a Safety First campaign throughout the coming year.

Mrs. Mary Moncrief and son of Greenwood, La., visited this week at the home of her brother, C. R. Burrow.

1931 Taxes Must Be Paid on or Before October 15th

The Attorney General has ruled that the law repealing interest and penalties of delinquent taxes is unconstitutional, and the comptroller has advised county tax collectors that they will be held personally liable if they do not collect these added amounts on 1931 taxes which are not paid on or before October 15th.

Collector John Fry states that there is nothing left for him to do but collect these penalties. The legislature in January made it possible for tax payers to split their taxes for this year, and pay only interest to October 15th for the last half. Not a large number in this county took advantage of this new law. The second called session of the legislature attempted to remit the interest, and to make it so that those who have not paid their 1931 taxes would have until January 31, 1932, in which to pay this year's taxes. This is the law ruled to be unconstitutional. All who have not paid this year's tax bill have until Oct. 15th to make the payment, and these taxes will become delinquent and additional penalties added on Oct. 16th.

Sunday School Campaign Brings in 125 New Pupils Sunday

The pastors of the various churches of Canyon desire to express our deep appreciation of the work being done by the Publicity Committees representing the various churches of Canyon. It was most gratifying to note the increased attendance in the Sunday Schools last Sunday, as a result of the united efforts being put forth. We are reliably informed that there was an increase of about 125 in the enrollment of the Sunday Schools, which means approximately an increase of 16 percent for the first Sunday.

The committee met at the First Christian Church Sunday evening and outlined the following procedure for this week:

It is the purpose to have stickers printed to be placed on the windows of the business houses of Canyon, with the slogan, "ENROLL IN SUNDAY SCHOOL." They also enlisted the co-operation of Mr. Warwick and the Canyon News for the wide space in his paper calling attention to this slogan. We therefore urge every citizen in Canyon to continue his loyal support to the Committee in helping to put over this great program.

Chamber Commerce Election-Banquet Set for October 29th

Announcement was made Tuesday of the annual election of officers for the Canyon Chamber of Commerce which will be held at the annual banquet on October 29th. J. B. Elliston, president, stated that he hoped that every member of the organization would be present to hear the report of the past year's business and to take part in the election of officers for the coming year.

Mr. Elliston especially urged that business men invite farmers to the banquet on the 29th in order to bring the interest of the town and country closer.

Fred E. Wortham, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, will have a report of the achievements of the past year ready for the annual banquet.

Town Women and Men Greet Student Body Saturday a. m.

Dr. Harris M. Cook, dean of men, felt that the meeting of the business and professional men of the town and the young men of the college last Saturday was very successful.

Among the townsmen who were able to attend were T. C. Thompson, Dr. F. M. Wilson, C. H. Jarrett, Oscar Hunt, C. R. Burrow, N. E. McIntire, R. P. Jarrett, W. A. Warren, Fred Wortham, H. W. Cane, Sam Bond, J. W. Reid, C. W. Warwick, Dr. D. M. Stewart, E. W. Hartman, O. N. Gamble, W. J. Wooten, Gordon McCarty, Dr. C. E. Donnell, and Dr. S. L. Ingham.

The college men were glad to meet some of the citizens of the town and expressed the hope that they might get to know a great number of Canyon people during their stay here.

At the same time the Men's Meeting was being held in the College gymnasium, a meeting of house holders and women students was being held in the Education Auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Geraldine Green, dean of women. A large number of women attended and problems common to students and house holders were discussed. Miss Ruth Lowes told the story, "The Three Weavers," which was much appreciated to meet a large number of the women students.

It is hoped that students and townspeople will know each other this year better than ever before.

Farmers Unable to Get Laborers for Cotton and Feed

Farmers from several sections of the Panhandle, as well as many from Randall county have been in Canyon the past week seeking help for cotton picking and for shocking grain. After spending almost a day here last week, one farmer from Claremont located one man who returned with him and was willing to work at the prevailing wage offered by the farmers.

Local authorities, both county and city, stated that the demand for laborers on the farms has been greater this fall than ever before, and men to respond to the call has been very light in spite of unemployment.

Notices have been posted in every town where Red Cross aid was given last year that no aid will be given this winter to those who refuse to accept farm labor when there is no labor in other lines. It is stated that the Red Cross has issued notice that no aid will be given any section of Texas is year owing to the abundant crops, and the fact that farmers are crying for help in every section of the state. Whatever aid is given during the winter will be strictly local so far as Texas is concerned.

Mrs. R. W. Ratcliff and Mrs. Jasper Atkins were guests of Mrs. T. B. Atkins in Amarillo Wednesday.

RANDALL FARMS SHOW IMPROVED STATE BY CENSUS

MORE DAIRY COWS AND POULTRY ON THE FARMS.

Radical Change Shown in Randall During the Past Ten Years Shown by Census.

The government has just released interesting facts about Randall county as revealed by the census taken in March of last year. A comparison is shown between conditions which existed in 1925 and 1920 on the farms of the county.

There were a total of 843 farms last year; 562 in 1925 and 33 in 1920.

The total acreage in farms last year was 649,527; in 1925, 423,973; in 1920, 457,020.

The average size of the farms has decreased as the number increased. The average size in 1920 was 1,193.3 acres, which had been reduced to $770.5 acres last year.

The value of land and buildings had doubled in the ten year period, with the total being $20,681,785 last year. The largest increase is shown in the value of the buildings which had increased from $947,540 to $2,081,320 in the ten year period.

The value of farm machinery had greatly increased in the ten years, being $523,682 in 1920, and $1,741,420 in 1930.

The price per farm land in 1920 was shown to be $23.07; in 1925, $29.92 and in 1930, $31.84.

Interesting figures are revealed in the change which has taken place on the farms in Randall county during the past ten years so far as farm animals are concerned. Horses have decreased from 3,780 in 1920 to 3,025 in 1930. Mules have decreased from 1,202 to 883. Cattle numbered 30,294 in 1920 and 31,588 in 1930, but dairy cattle in 1920 showed only 1,197 as compared with 5,008 in 1930. Hogs have decreased in ten years from 4,176 to 3,814. But poultry of all kinds increased from 32,780 in 1920 to 70,678 in 1930.

Wheat is by far the largest crop in the county, with 153,347 acres planted in 1929, which produced 2,906,834 bushels. Wheat acreage has increased from 33,904 acres in 1924 and 40,245 in 1919. Corn is listed with 2,351 acres, and a production of 39,695; oats, with an acreage of 8,150 and production of 230,679. Barley with an acreage of 5,07, and a production of 112,513. Hay with an acreage of 1,267, and a production of 1,648.

In the county there was shown to be a total of 249,323 under cultivation. Pasture lands were listed as 390,563, of which 331,537 acres were plowable.

Regarding farm management the census shows 447 farms to be operated by their owners, with a total acreage of 296,640. Managers run 16 farms of 93,308 acres, and 380 tenants lease 259,579 of farm lands.

The size of the farms has decreased very greatly during the ten year period. In 1920 there were not 40 farms in the county of less than 175 acres, whereas there are about 200 at the present time. The following schedule will be of interest:

Under 3 acres, 2
3 to 9 acres, 18
10 to 19 acres, 17
20 to 49 acres, 38
50 to 99 acres, 44
100 to 174 acres, 100
175 to 259 acres, 54
260 to 499 acres, 224
500 to 999 acres, 230
1,000 acres and over, 116.

WINSTON SAVAGE MAKES TEXAS LONGHORN BAND

Winston Savage, who is attending the State University at Austin this year has become a member of the Longhorn Band. There were about one hundred fifty men who tried out for a place on the band and Savage was one of the few who were chosen. He plays a baritone horn.

Savage's success is no surprise to those who know something of the history of the College band conducted by C. E. Strain. Every man who has gone from the local band to the University and has tried out for a place has made it. Harold Shanklin, Edgar Ireland and Frank Stafford were in the clarinet section; Travis Shaw, Jr. played the melophone.

The success of these men in such keen competition is considered a very high compliment to Mr. Strain's instruction.

Miss May Moss Richardson spoke at the Plainview district meeting of the Epworth League held at Olton Sunday.

THE LEGISLATURE ENDS.

By Clyde W. Warwick,
Representative 123rd District

The writer was mistaken in a prophetic declaration which was printed in last week's issue of The News. We stated that the legislature closed on Tuesday, whereas the second called session continued until Saturday night. The article was written in Austin before Tuesday. The circumstances were unusual. The legislature had adopted the adjournment resolution a week previously to close on Tuesday. On that date all of the members who yet remained in Austin were packed up, ready to return to their homes. It was evident at noon that all of the business had been transacted, and that the session would certainly end by the time set, 6:00 o'clock, had arrived. However, things sometimes happen in a most unexpected manner.

In the middle of the afternoon Governor Sterling called members of the Senate and House to his office and demanded that the bill be passed authorizing the state to drill for oil in the Sabine river. He considered the bill of such importance to the state that a threat was made to reconvene the law makers on Wednesday if the body adjourned Tuesday night. This bill had been killed in the senate by East Texas senators who objected on the grounds that the water supply of all towns along the river would be jeopardized if this drilling were permitted. The Governor was of the opinion that the oil under the river, property of the state, was worth several millions of dollars, and that the state should have the money to meet the running expenses of the state government. Therefore, adjournment was postponed until Saturday night, and this bill passed.

This writer proposed a bill in the regular session in January, which we were glad to see passed in the closing hours of the 2nd called session, to authorize the transfer of money in the state treasury from one fund to another. The state highway department always has a large cash balance. The pension fund and the general fund are very often depleted, and at the present time there is no chance for either of them to get on a cash basis until next year, and maybe not then. In January the highway department opposed the transfer of any of its funds, but with the present deficit affecting thousands of state employees and all who have business with the state, it was deemed that the highway department invest part of its cash balance in these warrants. This one bill will save the state employees several thousand dollars.

The Governor has on his desk, if he has not acted upon it by the time this is printed, the Brooks bill, which would divert part of the gasoline tax to pay the highway bonds and interest of the counties of the state. It is freely predicted that the Governor will veto this bill. He was chairman of the highway commission when he was elected governor. The bill is bitterly opposed by all members of the highway department, as well as by hundreds of highway enthusiasts who claim that its passage will retard construction in the state to almost zero. No one in the state wishes to see highway construction stop until there is an adequate state system. It was proposed that the gasoline tax be increased to 5 cents per gallon if this bill became a law. Such an amendment was defeated. The increase in the gasoline tax at this time would have been very unpopular.

Political writers predict that the Governor will veto the Brooks bill, but will suffer very greatly from a political standpoint as a result of this veto. The people of the state are urging that something be done to reduce their local taxes, and if the state would take over the big bond obligations of the counties, local taxes could be very greatly reduced. The situation is almost equal to that confronting the Governor earlier in the session in regard to the cotton bill. If he vetoes the Brooks bill, thousands will say that he has kept the counties from reducing their taxes, and therefore kept a heavy burden of taxation on home owners. If he approves the bill, he will virtually stop highway construction, if we are to take the word of the highway experts. There are more people asking right now for lower taxes than there are for highways, so the force in favor of the bill is now being brought on the Governor to sign. We feel sorry for Governor Sterling in his political plight.

Those who sponsored the cotton bill and guided it through both houses freely predict that it will be repealed at the special session which seems assured for January or February. Many of the farmers who were so strong for the bill last month are now beginning to regret its passage. It was generally admitted by those most enthusiastic in its support that it was worthless, and could not be enforced, but once the Governor yielded to the demands of the cotton farmers for relief, there was nothing left for the legislature to do but pass some kind of a bill, even though it was taken for granted that it was not effective, and soon would have to be repealed.

Another unwise bill passed by this session was the measure to remit all penalties and interest until January 31, 1932, for those who took advantage of the split tax measure of this year. This bill was so defective that the attorney general has ruled it unconstitutional, and the comptroller has advised tax collectors that they will be held responsible for the collection of all penalties and interest if they allow any person to pay these taxes without collecting the interest and penalty.

The second payment on 1931 taxes is therefore due on October 15th, and these taxes will be delinquent on Oct. 16th if not paid. It is the safe policy to pay your taxes now, if you failed to do so in January.

What kind of tax measures will be recommended by the special committee when the special session of the legislature is held in January? Business men and industrial leaders are holding their breath. It is unfortunate that the trend of the times is for laying a heavy penalty upon business and industry so far as taxes are concerned. It is unfortunate that the trend of the times is to shift the tax burden to the other fellow, regardless of his ability to pay.

No state can become great without big business institutions or without industry. Simply because men are willing to invest heavily in a business or industrial enterprise is no argument that they are able to stand a heavy, or unjust tax burden. Sometimes they are making very small returns on the investment, even though the business is big. It is stated authentically that three or four big business firms are now preparing to leave Texas because of the pending danger of the income tax, high franchise taxes, the proposed intangible assets tax, and other measures which seek to place an unjust penalty upon business. Business and commerce should pay their just share of taxes, but when this burden increases to the point of saturation of all profits from the enterprise, there is nothing left to do but quit.

It was expected that Senator Clint Small would announce his candidacy for Governor with the close of the session Saturday. However, the senate is sitting as a court of impeachment this week, and Senator Small will likely withhold his announcement until this trial ends. It is taken for granted that Senator Small will make the race. Governor Sterling has discouraged all talk that he will not be a candidate for re-election but the fact remains that business associates and others interested in his personal affairs are firm in the conviction that he will consider one term sufficient. He has had a hard battle during his short time in office, and deserves more the sympathy of the people than their criticism.

Any man has a right to borrow trouble. But we do insist that he hasn't any right in going around lending it to his friends.

News in Canyon 25 Years Ago

(From the files of the Canyon City News, October 5, 1906)

John Knight and wife left Wednesday for Neosho and other points in Missouri for a visit to relatives and old friends, expecting to be absent for about a month.

Born—Friday, Sept. 29th, to Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Scott, a girl.

Work has begun on the foundation for the big concrete building on the south side of the square.

W. F. Heller on Thursday sold the northwest quarter of his section No. 67 to Wm. Willard at $12 per acre.

The track on the new railroad has been laid to Happy and the switches are being placed there ready for business. From present appearances the speedy "on to Tulsa" outlook looks very slim, indeed, some of the natives about Happy say the road is going to "stop right there."

I. C. Jenkins has concluded to build a 7 or 8 room residence on his quarter block southeast of the college and will move into it as soon as completed. Work began on it this week.

The Thompson Drug Store has been sold by its proprietor, Dr. J. B. Latham, to J. L. Prichard. A. H. Thompson will manage the business.

F. Heller and John Knight on Wednesday bought from James Hutchinson 65 acres about half of it in pasture next to John Knight and the other half on the west side of the public road. Consideration, $100 per acre. L. C. Lair made the sale.

W. F. Bomar of Waco, an old timer here and at one time county treasurer, was in town on business the middle of the week.

Howard Stephenson has returned and is now with the Fulton Lumber Co.

The expense bill about an automobile must be something of an item as it is a common sight to see one and oftentimes two or three strung out in front of a blacksmith shop for repairs.

Mrs. J. A. Hill Asked to Take District Presidency of Texas Federated Clubs

It is likely that Mrs. J. A. Hill will become president of Seventh District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs when the state meeting is held in Lubbock in November. Mrs. Hill has not yet announced her decision regarding this office, but Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, of Pampa, who was elected president last spring has been forced to resign because of illness, and Mrs. Hill will succeed to the presidency if she decides that she can undertake the work.

Mrs. Hill was elected first vice-president last spring. Previous to that time she has served as chairman of the International Relations Committee, chairman of the American Citizenship Committee, and chairman of the American Home Committee. When the Federation held its district meeting in Canyon in 1926, Mrs. Hill, who was then president of the Woman's Book Club was chairman of the local general committee.

If Mrs. Hill becomes president she will have the enthusiastic backing of the entire district, as her work as a chairman has been outstanding. She has attended all the District meetings for the past eight or nine years and is well known to the women of the clubs.

Mrs. J. T. Whitmore, of Snyder, the retiring president of the Seventh District, is urging Mrs. Hill to accept the presidency, and Mrs. Hunkapillar has sent her all the plans which she had worked out for the district since her election last April.

If Mrs. Hill takes up this work, the secretary for the district will be a Canyon woman, it being customary for the secretary to be chosen from the president's home town.

Mrs. Reeves' article entitled "O. H. Nelson—Builder" appeared in the March 1931 issue of The Cattleman. Mr. Nelson's development is traced along with the development of the cattle industry in the Panhandle. It marked the passing of the Texas Longhorn and the beginning of a scientific era in the cattle industry. Judge Nelson served as president of the Panhandle Plains Historical Society in 1926. ## Householders Meet Girls in Chapel

For the first time in the history of W. T. the girls of the College and the College High School met in Saturday morning chapel with the housekeepers of the city who keep girls.

Mrs. Green, Dean of Women, acted as chairman of the hour. No formal program had been arranged, but Miss Lowes, kindergarten teacher, told a story and some of the problems students and householders have in common were discussed.

Mrs. Green believes such programs will go a long way towards creating an understanding between the students and householders and plans to conduct similar programs in the future.

Miss Jessie Louder, who is teaching near Clovis, spent the week end in the parental S. B. Louder home.

Buffaloes Defeat Edmond Broncos In 6-0 Game; Team of Former Buff Coach Succumbs to Aerial Attack

In a game that looked as if it would end with a scoreless tie, the West Texas Buffaloes finally nosed out the Edmond Teachers 6-0, when Bob Clark made a successful forward pass to big Joe Fortenberry who galloped over the goal line for the only score.

The Buffs were on a return engagement as the Broncos made a trip over here last year and returned home with the winning score.

The Thundering Herd threatened about four times to score during the game but were unable to carry the pigskin over the last five or six yards. The Oklahoma Broncos made only one threat to score when a pass was completed, placing the ball on the five yard line, but the Buffaloes refused to be driven back.

The Buffs used an aerial attack during the game and passes were rather successful. Only one forward pass was incomplete in 20 attempts, and it was a pass that saved the day for the Herd.

Those starting the game were Burk, Ballengee, Woolever, McLendon, Cooper, Manning, Fortenberry in the line, and Clark, Powell, McInnis, and Williams in the backfield. Substitutions in the backfield were Spence, Brotherton, and Duncan. No complete report could be obtained as to substitutions in the line.

The Buffaloes will not play any game this week end, but Coach "Sad" Sam Burton says that the time will be well used in practice until the next grid encounter, which will be with Daniel Baker and marks the first T. I. A. A. conference game for the Buffs. The game is to be played in Canyon on October 16.

Freshmen to Play Pampa High School Harvesters Friday

One of the fastest, most interesting and most spectacular football games of the season will be played next Friday night, October 9, on Buffalo field under the powerful floodlights between the Pampa High School Harvesters and the college freshmen.

The Pampa team is coached by Odus Mitchell, a former Buffalo, who is beyond doubt one of the greatest all around athletes ever developed at West Texas, and he is bringing a strong squad that is well under way for a successful year. His past record as coach at Pampa is proof of what will be in store for football fans.

The West Texas Freshmen are coached by Mitchell Jones, another former Buffalo ace and one time head football coach of the Buffaloes. For the past two years Jones has been the Yearling coach, but since the new T. I. A. A. conference rule caused the Yearlings to be done away with, the team is strictly freshmen.

Coach Jones's freshmen suffered a defeat at the hands of the Dalhart High School a little over a week ago, but since then they have improved considerably. There is still the handicap of the strangeness of the squad members to each other, and only nine days of actual practice lie behind the first year West Texas men. Their training didn't begin until the opening of school.

"This situation will be an advantage to the Harvesters," says Coach Jones, "but I can promise the fans an exciting game."

The Pampa Harvesters have made a promising start on their schedule this season, having won all four games they have played. Among their vanquished foes of this season are Clarendon, Oklahoma City, Memphis, and Wichita, Kansas. The latter was defeated by the decisive score of 48-0 last Saturday. The Harvesters are rated as one of the strongest Class A teams in the state. Most of the members of the college freshman team were high school stars, so the score should not be lopsided in any case.

DR. HILL ATTENDS AMARILLO MEET TO PLAN CONVENTION

Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the college, attended a meeting in Amarillo Friday afternoon to help formulate plans for the Texas State Teachers Association convention that is to meet there during the Thanksgiving vacation.

Besides Dr. Hill, those present at the meeting were W. A. McIntosh, superintendent of Amarillo Public Schools; C. M. Rogers, supervisor of junior and senior high schools; Miss Ventura Smith, supervisor of music; Mrs. Annie L. McDonald, supervisor of elementary schools; B. E. Masters, president of Amarillo Junior College; and O. V. Vernon, secretary of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce.

Condron, Barnett Plan to Continue Palo Duro Club

Dr. Albert Barnett and Professor S. H. Condron are two people who are doing something to help young people learn to use their leisure time profitably and pleasantly. Educators have been urging for years that the right use of leisure is one of the aims of education, but few have gone far enough to attempt to help people find worthwhile pursuits.

During the summer it was observed that there were many students on the college campus who had not found satisfactory leisure time occupations and were, as a result, dissatisfied with everything they were doing. To meet the needs of this group, Dr. Barnett and Mr. Condron called a meeting of all students who wanted to go for an outing. When the group met and went for its first trip to the Gordon-Cummings place, it was discovered that all of them wanted to do out-door things but did not know just how or where to plan for them.

The Palo Duro Outing Club was organized around this wish to be out of doors and to learn to use the resources of nature in securing recreation and added interest for everyday living.

During the summer the club, which had about fifty members, had one outing a week. Indoor baseball, played under the trees and in the shadows of the canyons, swimming, simple active games and the ever-present lunch furnished diversion on each trip.

In addition long dormant interests in geology, birds and animals, botany and other phases of nature were re-awakened. Professor W. C. White gave a delightful talk on the geology of Palo Duro Canyon and illustrated it with specimens found on the spot.

A game warden talked on his work as a part of the conservation program of the state. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon-Cummings did much to help the club by the fine cooperation they gave.

At the end of the summer the students and faculty members who belonged to the club felt that it furnished one of the pleasantest features of the session.

Mr. Condron and Dr. Barnett are planning to organize another Palo Duro Club this fall. It will be open to students and faculty members who are interested in out of door life, and it is likely that many of this year's outings will take place at the Palo Duro Park, which is open to the public through the efforts of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. Some interests which will be developed through the club will probably be bird study, astronomy, geology, geography and others. The people who belong to the club will be amateurs who are seeking to add joy and worth to their lives by getting acquainted with nature.

While the club here will be planned to suit the local wants, the idea which it represents has already attracted attention. Mr. Condron was told this summer by eminent educators that such an organization possesses wonderful possibilities for citizenship training and he and Dr. Barnett have been urged to continue their sponsorship of the local club.

Canyon Eagles Get Decision In Happy Game

The Canyon Eagles brought another conference tilt to a bare marginal end when they tied the Happy Jacks with the score of 0-0. However the first downs were 10 to 2 in favor of Canyon and the 20 yard penetration were Canyon 3, Happy 1, so the game was awarded to Canyon.

Wooten caught the kickoff and brought the ball back to his own forty yard line. Here Canyon started a series of runs that took the ball to the Jacks' one yard line, but Happy held tight and the ball went over.

In the third and fourth quarters the Eagles kept the ball in Happy territory almost all of the time even getting as close as four yards from the goal line. But the Jacks could not score. The Jacks did very little passing, relying almost entirely on their runs. The Eagles completed several good passes, but they could not get away, no man ever got loose, and there was no spectacular running.

The starting lineup was:

L. Braswell	Left Tackle	Parvin
Taylor	Center	Harvey
Walker	Right Guard	Gist
G. Braswell	Right Tackle	W. C. Barnard
Wright	Right End	Morgan
Harden	Left Half	Barnard
Wooten	Right Half	McGehee
Pearson	Quarter	Vernon
Tucker	Full	Robinson
Substitutions: Thomas for Wright; T Cox for Walker

Eagles to Play Plainview Under High Lights Fri.

Canyon Eagles are going to step up a notch Friday night, October 9th, and take on Plainview, a class A team. The Plainview eleven has already played quite a number of games and lost none of them. The Eagle's record is still clear with four games won to their credit. The game promises to be tight, and will be played under the lights at Plainview.

Fire Prevention Drills Will be Staged in C. H. S.

Fire Prevention week is to be observed more carefully this year in Canyon High School than formerly and a carefully planned program is to be carried out. It is necessary to conduct fire drills for the purpose of training occupants to leave a building orderly and quickly in case of a fire.

A system of signals has been worked out in which three bells is the signal to march out of the building, one bell is to halt, and two bells means to return to the building.

For a successful fire drill, several officers are needed. The officers appointed are:

Fire Chief: Willard Middleton. Assistants: First floor, J. M. Black and Leonard Braswell; second floor, Harvey Thomas and Jake Beard; third floor, Cleo Wright and George Schmidt.

Floor captains: first floor, Curtis Bell; second floor, Clarence Wooten; third floor, D. B. Pearson.

Room captains, and room monitors.

The duties of the chief are to supervise the drill, determine exits to be used, and keep the fire fighting apparatus in order and train pupils how to use it. The assistants, of course, help the chief.

The floor captains have charge of the three floors. They see that every one is out of the rooms on his floor and report to the chief.

The room captain should get every person out of his room and get them out of the building by the designated route.

The room monitor must see that the doors and windows of his room are all closed.

In fire drills it is necessary that no one try to get his wraps or books out.

There are two kinds of drills that will be practiced. They are obstructive and unobstructive drills. Often in case of a fire one entrance may be obstructed and the courses will have to be changed. The fire chief will place a red block of wood where the entrance is obstructed, thus showing which route is to be taken in leaving the building.

When the fire signal is sounded the students should not say a word to each other. Follow instructions and co-operate with the officers in making the fire drill a success.

Home Ec Dept. Has Interesting Work Planned

The third year Home Economics girls have undertaken the interesting project of building and furnishing miniature houses. The types being built are Spanish, Colonial, English.

They have already drawn plans for the houses and are ready to start building. The houses are to be made of beaver board and the furniture is to be carved out of soap.

This is the first Home Economics class in Canyon High School to build houses, although many former classes have studied house construction. The study of constructing and furnishing houses by this method is much more interesting, more benefits will be received, and it can be remembered longer if the class does the work itself.

S. S. Month Is Inaugurated At C. H. S. in Chapel

The value of Sunday School was emphasized in the talks given by both Mr. W. A. Warren and Dr. Albert Barnett when they addressed the Canyon school students on Thursday.

Mr. Warren discussed the importance of Sunday School in the business world. By comparison he showed how the boy or the girl who had a Sunday School training could advance above those who did not have this training. He impressed on the students that an employer prefers one trained in this line rather than one who has only the public school training.

Dr. Barnett explained the meaning of Sunday School. During his talk he stated that the Sunday School was a place to obtain a spiritual and moral training, and to receive the part of an education which the public schools are not allowed to give.

These talks were only the beginning of the Sunday School campaign which will last during the month of October.

FACULTY ENTERTAINS SENIORS.

The faculty of the Canyon High School entertained the Senior class Monday evening, October 5, in the grade school gymnasium.

D. B. Pearson Is New Stude Council Pres.

The question of the student council president was settled Thursday afternoon when D. B. Pearson was elected to this office.

Pearson attended school at Parlington and Norman, Okla., where he lettered in both basketball and football in the junior high school. He came to Canyon High last year as a sophomore, serving as president of his class and lettering again on both teams. He is now doing excellent playing at quarter back this season, and expects to make this year's basketball team.

The next week marks the close of the first six week's period. Are you satisfied with the work you have done? Is the grade card that you are to present to your parents this week end one to be proud of?

There will be no doubt in our minds now as to how we stand in our courses. Our grades will show that to us. We should study our grades and seek for ways to improve them. One "C" may spell lack of application. That is the "C" for us to work on. If we apply ourselves, take a deep interest in our work, it will turn into an "A".

Another "C" may mean that the course is hard and perhaps we did well to receive it. That's the kind of "C" to be proud of. Still keep working and perhaps by Christmas that "C" will be an "A".

So you see grades each have a different meaning though each bears the same numerical value.

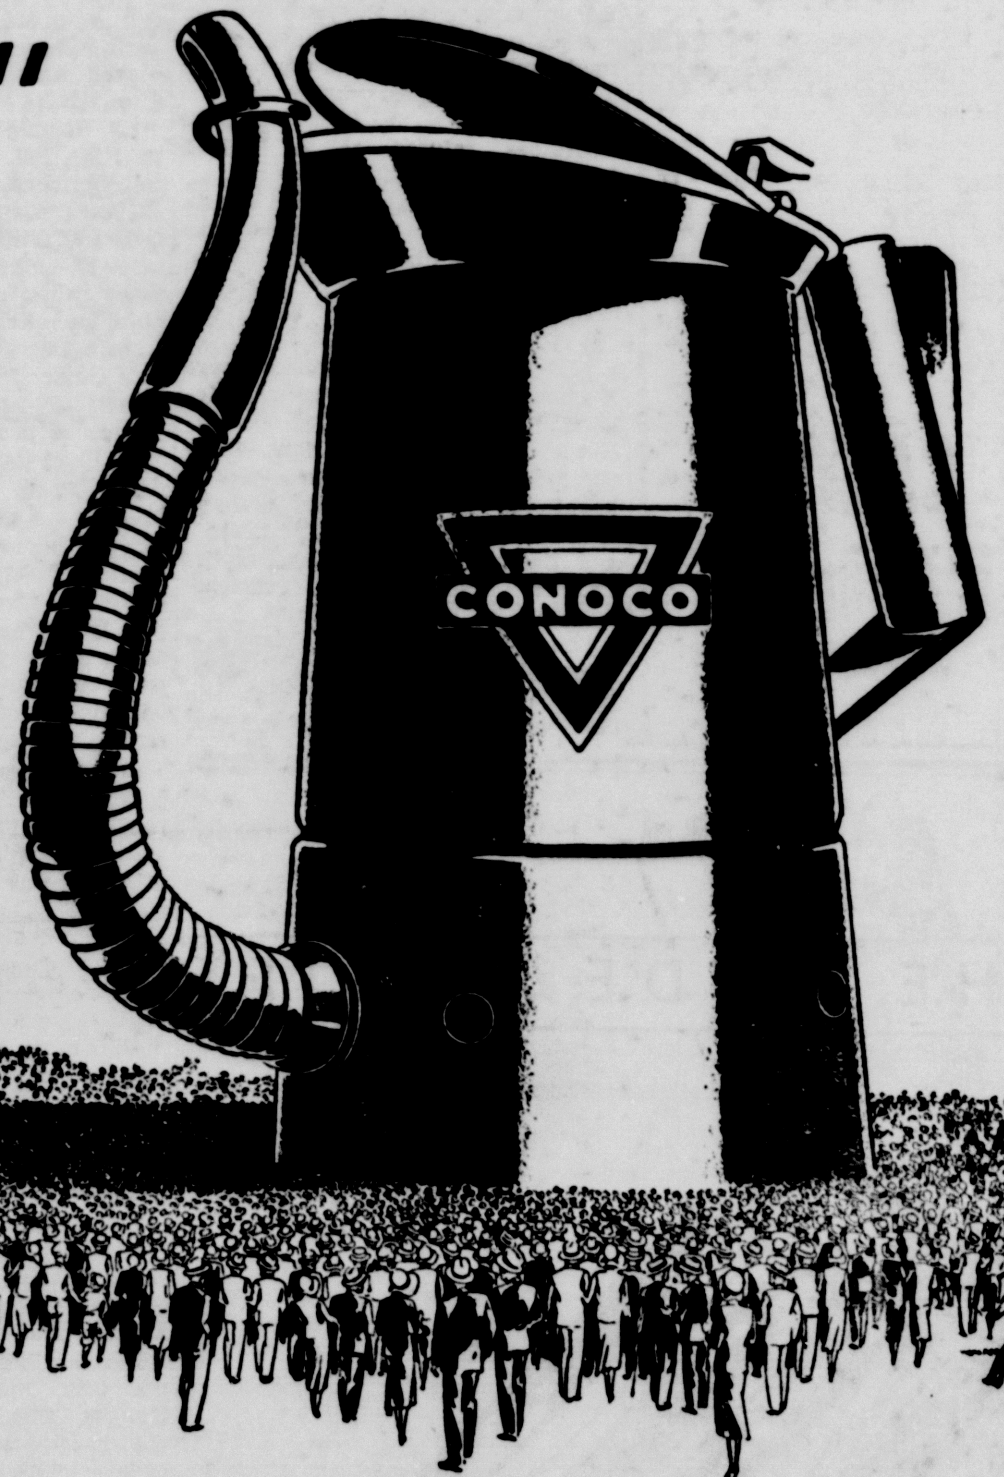

Let's study our cards and see what kind of "C's" we have.

THE "HIDDEN QUART"

— is Worth its Weight in Gold to Any Motorist!

It's not the mileage your speedometer shows that makes your car wear out quickly, lose power and need costly repairs. It's motor wear, caused by friction, that does it! And almost half of all this motor wear occurs while you're starting. Cut down starting wear and you'll give your motor longer life.

That's just what the "hidden quart" of Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil does! It stays up in your motor and never drains away and thus cuts down starting wear! Ordinary oils drain away, leaving working parts unprotected until oil is pumped from the crankcase through the motor, which takes several minutes. Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil penetrates and combines with metal surfaces of working parts, stays there and never drains away. The "hidden quart" safely lubricates every cylinder, piston and bearing the instant you touch the starter.

The "hidden quart" is worth its weight in gold to you! From the first fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil, you'll have this "hidden quart" up in your motor, giving safe lubrication at all times, lengthening your motor's life. Drain your crankcase now... fill with Germ Processed Oil at any station displaying the Conoco Red Triangle.

ARE YOUR FLUES IN SHAPE?

Before your heating appliances go into service for fall and winter, see they are in shape for the best and most effective service.

FLUES are of a very first importance, no stove is safe without a FLUE whatever kind of fuel it burns. Gas is no exception.

FLUES oftimes become clogged during the warm summer months, for example, birds sometimes build their nests in chimneys during this period, and it is a wise move to check them before the cold winter months come on.

EXES TO TAKE PART IN STATE TEACHERS MEET

BANQUET IN HERRING HOTEL TO FEATURE AMARILLO CONVENTION.

Amarillo will be host, November 26-29 to the Texas State Teachers Association. The city auditorium has been designated as the place for the general session of the convention. Churches and hotels have been secured for sectional meeting points, and the Herring and Amarillo hotels are headquarters for the convention.

President Hill appointed a committee which will work out plans for programs from the college during the convention. On this committee are: S. H. Condon, R. A. Terrill, T. M. Moore, Albert Barnett, F. E. Savage, Mrs. T. V. Reeves, and Miss Isabel Robinson.

The college will maintain in some convenient place headquarters for an information bureau for ex-students. The "exes" are planning extensive activity during the three days of the convention.

Miss Edna Graham has been appointed chairman of the banquet committee. Serving with her on this committee are: Miss Marion Normington, W. E. Lockhart, Miss Miltia Hill, and Wallace R. Clark. The committee has planned a banquet for ex-students to be held Friday evening from 6:00 to 8:15 in the Crystal Ball Room of the Herring hotel. Plates for the banquet may be secured for $1.50 each. The college band and orchestra will be present to furnish music for the entertainment. They will also appear on other occasions during the convention.

The general committee has made plans whereby this institution will be open for inspection during the convention. The museum is expected to be a place of interest to many visitors at that time.

On Friday, November 27 will be held the annual business session of

Student Assistants for Year Announced

Due to graduations, resignations, and other causes there are several new names in the list of student assistants selected for this year.

The revised list is as follows: Gene Smalley, secretary to the Dean of the College; Mrs. Sue Donald, secretary to the Dean of Women; Leola Hayes, Public Service Bureau; Mildred Wheat, Commercial Department; Louise Holgate, book store; Tom W. Langston, Agriculture Department; A. L. Jones, student assistant in charge of the College dairy; Herman Troutman, biology; Elmer Padgett, chemistry; Victor Dunlap, physics; Cady Bentley, Public Speaking and Dramatics Department; Jim Crowder and Bob Clark, Athletics Department; and O. D. Rawlins, Bruce Cleland, Mary Berryman, Dorothy Cash and Margaret Strain, library staff. Twenty-five students, who represent various kinds of skilled labor, are employed on the college farm.

It is the policy of the administration to employ student assistants in order to reduce the cost of instruction and assist promising and meritorious students in completing their college courses. They are paid on a scale designed to meet most of the requirements of the thrifty student.

Many Reunions Held At T-Anchor Ranch

When the Old Cowpunchers Association holds its annual meeting in 1932, it is likely that it will occur at the headquarters of the T-Anchor ranch which was the first house built in Randall County.

The T-Anchor ranch is now a part of the property of West Texas State Teachers College and is the college farm but the old house is being preserved and restored for its historic associations. T. M. Moore who has charge of the farm has received a letter from John Arnot of Amarillo, president of the Cowpunchers Association saying that they appreciate the invitation to hold their reunion on their old grounds. Many of those who attend this meeting were cowboys previous to 1890.

The old T-Anchor ranch is a popular place for reunions of old timers. Recently ex-cowboys of the famous ranch met for their annual re-union at the site of their former labors, and some 200 old timers attended. Back-slapping was the order of the day, and the program was made more acceptable by an old-fashioned barbecue. Judge Gough was elected president of the of the organization, and R. E. Baird and John Arnot were re-elected to take charge of arrangements for next year's get-together.

BUGS WITH NEW HEADS

One of the most interesting biological experiments recently noted is that of grafting heads of one kind of bug on the bodies of another, a feat accomplished by a German scientist.

It is said that when the head of a beetle was grafted on the body of a June bug it tried to burrow in refuse matter and it made no effort to fly, while the reverse experiment caused a beetle with a June bug's head to try to climb a tree. When a female head was grafted on the body of a male insect of the same species, its action became characteristic of the female, and vice versa.

Certain insects are said to be well adapted to such experiments, as they can live for a considerable time after decapitation, because their organs of breathing are distributed over their whole bodies. Possibly some day scientists will prove the fallacy of the saying: "You must not expect old heads on young shoulders."

So much good advice is wasted by giving it to the other fellow when we ought to apply it to ourselves.
